

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact: Anna Sczepanski
978-270-8156, anna@mission.partners

Caitlyn Brazill Named New Per Scholas Executive Vice President, Development

Caitlyn Brazill brings more than 15 years of public and non-profit experience to our national organization

New York (April 12, 2017) – Per Scholas is proud to announce that Caitlyn Brazill is joining the Per Scholas as Executive Vice President, Development, providing resource development and fundraising support to the organization’s six sites. In this role, she will lead the strategic development and execution of Per Scholas’ funding model, as well as Per Scholas’ communications functions. Ms. Brazill will also serve on Per Scholas’ National Leadership team, contributing to the strategic growth of the organization.

Ms. Brazill brings more than 15 years of public and non-profit experience to Per Scholas, including demonstrated expertise in fundraising and communications, program evaluation and design, qualitative and quantitative research, policy advocacy, and organizational development. She has worked across diverse policy domains, including asset building and financial services, workforce and youth development, child welfare and income support.

Prior to Per Scholas, Ms. Brazill was the Senior Vice President for Strategic Partnerships at CAMBA, where she was responsible for resource development, government affairs, communications and program evaluation. Before joining CAMBA, Ms. Brazill spent over 10 years working in the non-profit and government sectors within New York City, including as Director of Policy and Communications at NYU’s Furman Center for Real Estate and Urban Policy as well as Director of Research and Policy at the New York City Department of Consumer Affairs’ Office of Financial Empowerment.

Ms. Brazill has been an Adjunct Professor of Public Administration at New York University since 2005, and currently teaches a graduate level course on Wealth and Inequality. She earned her Master’s in Public Administration at NYU’s Wagner School of Public Service, and lives in Brooklyn with her husband and three children.

About Per Scholas

Per Scholas is a national nonprofit that drives positive and proven social change in communities across the country. Through rigorous and tuition-free technology training and professional development, Per Scholas prepares motivated and curious adults who are un- or underemployed for transformative careers in the tech sector, while creating onramps to businesses in need of their talents. Per Scholas provides its solution in six cities across the country: Atlanta, GA; Greater Cincinnati, OH; Columbus, OH; Dallas, TX; the National Capital Region; and New York, NY. To date, Per Scholas has trained over 6,000 individuals, helping them build lasting, life-changing careers in technology. For more information, visit perscholas.org, Twitter @PerScholas and Facebook.

#